A NEW PONTIFICAL DECREE.

An important pontifical document, reforming the organization and working of Roman Catholic congregations, was made public in Rome yesterday. It removes Great Britain, Holland, Canada, and the United States from the jurisdiction of the propaganda, these countries thus ceasing to be considered missionary lands.

Besides reforming the propaganda, the pontifical decree introduced remarkable modifications in the other congregations.

The document consists of three parts, the first being an apostolic constitution reorganizing the congregations through a more suitable division of subjects and eliminating the duplication of authority, and the second is a special law for the regulation of the labors of the ancient rota and signatura tribunals.

The most important part of the reform is that both civil and criminal litigations are removed from the jurisdiction of the congregations and intrusted to the tribunals of the rota and of the segnatura, the congregations only retaining disciplinary powers.

A new congregation regulating discipline and sacraments is created, its duties including also questions regarding marriages, while the dogmatic side of the sacraments remains under the jurisdiction of the congregation of the holy office, which includes mixed marriages. The pope remains prefect of the holy office.

The reforms will become operative next November. The rota will be an international court, with ten judges, and besides the Italian, French, Austrian, Spanish, and Portuguese judges, it will now have one English-speaking judge. The segnatura will be entirely composed of cardinals, of which the number is yet uncertain.

The practical result of the new conditions is that the countries removed from the jurisdiction of the propaganda, instead of applying to the propaganda for decision of all questions, must apply to a suitable congregation.

The creation of new dioceses and the appointment of new bishops will be dealt with by the papal secretary of state, after which they will be sent in trust to the congregation of the consistory to carry out the decision. While at present all questions are gratuitously dealt with by the propaganda as established for missionary lands, after the reforms go into effect the payment of the usual fees will be exacted.

MURDERER ATTACKS MOTHER.

A shocking situation was revealed yesterday in one of the most remarkable murder trials ever held in Brooklyn, that of Bernard Carlin, 22 years old, who faced a jury on the charge of killing his mother.

The trial was remarkable for two dramatic scenes, when the prisoner demanded freedom of the death chair.

"I've had enough of prisons!" he shouted. "I've been in prison all my life! Give me the chair or let me go!"

When called to the stand in his own defense he broke into a tirade.

"My mother never cared for me!" he cried. "I never knew the difference between right and wrong. All I ever saw was the inside of institutions.

"First they sent me to truant homes and then to states' prisons. I can't see across the courtroom now from being shut up in dark cells. I didn't know what I was doing."

Insanity is Carlin's defence. He was sentenced to death in the electric chair in the week beginning August 3.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING, JULY 7, 1908.

STATISTICS of deaths and accidents from foolhardy procedures in connection with the celebration of the Fourth of July are now being published. It appears that there were 71 deaths and 2,624 accidents due to the careless handling of pistols, guns and explosives. It required several columns in the New York Tribune of last Sunday to give a list of Fourth of July deaths and accidents. Of course there were many other mishaps which the reporters failed to hear of. The Commissioners of the District of Columbia will take drastic measures toward eliminating the dangerous manner of celebrating Independence Day in future. "I think Washington should set an example to the country by celebrating the Fourth of July without maiming its citizens." Commissioner Macfarland has thus expressed his views. He says that in future the city should have a popular celebration. In such case, he said, he would urge that the sale of fireworks be forbidden. He said he would also refuse to suspend the law against the firing of pistols and the use of explosives. This view of celebrating the holiday is backed by a strong public sentiment in every city for a sane observance. The commissioner will recommend that the superintendent of police and the fire marshal be instructed next year not to issue permits, which will not only prevent the sale of fireworks, but their use, in the District of Columbia. Commissioner West says: "I believe the day can be observed with as much patriotism and more sanity if the wanton use of gunpowder is prevented."

A BALTIMORE church opened a carnival last night. Eighteen booths were in operation and formed an unbroken line along either sidewalk from Lexington to Saratoga street. The booths, which were gayly decorated in red, white and blue bunting and Japanese lanterns, were in charge of young ladies. The Boy's Brigade Band of 25 pieces rendered the most popular airs from a grand stand erected for their use in front of the hall connected with the church. Inside the hall, a moving-picture show was pleasing many spectators. One of the features was a gypsy camp, at which green corn and beans were cooked and served in gypsy fashion. At a tent nearby, a gypsy maiden told fortunes in an unerring manner. There were five automobiles to give short rides around the neighborhood, and also a straw wagon 17 feet long. The object of the carnivals is to get rid of the remainder of the mortage of $9,200 on the church property. John Bunyan in his immortal allegory tells of the pilgrim passing through "Vanity Fair," in his journey from the "City of Destruction" to the "Eternal City." At the present day, it seems, he is likely to enter the fair at the outset.

THE PAPERS of this morning gave an account of a game of baseball at Hot Springs yesterday between teams composed on one side of Secretary Taft and several Senators and Representatives in Congress and on the other of newspaper correspondents. The papers go on to say that "when the game began Mr. Taft was having a talk with Senator Beveridge on Indiana politics, and they gave their proxies to two colored boys till they, themselves, finished their talk and assumed the responsibility of the game." And there is no intimation that any protest was made to the introduction of negroes into the game! And this at the fashionable Hot Springs in Virginia! In the statemen's nine, besides Mr. Taft and Senator Beveridge, were Senator Crane, and Representatives Burke, of Pennsylvania; Burton, of Ohio; Lawrence, of Massachusetts, and McKinley, of Illinois.

IN A big typed editorial in the last issue of the Commoner headed "A Political Party Afraid," Mr. Bryan says he expects to make much during the campaign of the turning down at Chicago of the plank offered by LaFollette. In plain black type he arraigns the republicans as: "Afraid of the truth; afraid of the light; afraid of the people."

THE butchers of London declare the American beef trust is ruining the business in England and they have asked the House of Commons to investigate. This trust is ruining the people of this country and it is hoped the British House may find a way to control it as the Americans seem to be unable to do so.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, July 7.

Now that it seems likely that Frank H. Hitchcock, will be chairman of the republican national committee instead of Arthur Vorys, some of Judge Taft's confidents have permitted to leak out the supposed cause of all this rumpus. In short, Charles P. Taft committed blunder number two in Brother Will's campaign for the presidency, the first being the announcement that Secretary Taft was in the fight both for the senatorship o Ohio and for the presidency. Blunder number two came, according to the story now, when Walter Brown, chairman of the Ohio state committee; Henry S. Williams, chairman of the Ohio executive committee, and State Auditor Guilbert threatened to have the Ohio delegation to the Chicago convention join the Roosevelt stampede if Vorys was not given the promise of the chairmanship. They rendered "O, Promise Me," to Charles P. and Brother Charley is said to have promised But when it came to the delivery Judge Taft sent word that he wanted to "talk it over" in Cincinnati. After the Ohio politicians had made their demands for the chairmanship to Judge Taft, that individual expressed his pleasure at meeting them but added that as the president had given him such good advice before the convention that he might be able to make some valuable suggestions in this case. Any way he would be at Oyster Bay in a week and that he would give him time to think it all over. "Oh, blame it on to me," the president is said to have kindly advised Judge Taft, and the big Buckeye did. Hence Hitchcock's triumph. Hence the acidity in certain quarters in Ohio.

In a decision rendered today the Interstate Commerce Commission upholds the present regulations of the railroads, requiring lumber shippers to stake and pack their own shipments, when forwarding in open cars, declaring the practice economical and not unjust. This decision grew out of a number of complaints filed by the National Wholesale Lumber Dealers Association and the Pacific Coast Manufacturers Association against several of the largest railroad systems. The lumbermen contended that the present regulations were unjust and discriminatory. Commissioners Harlan and Clark filed a dissenting opinion.

THE LAMBETH CONFERENCE.

The fifth decennial conference of the archbishops and bishops of the Anglican Church throughout the world, known as the Lambeth Conference, opened at Lambeth Palace in London yesterday. The meetings of the conference will continue until August 6. There are 247 prelates attending this year, compared with seventy-six at the first Lambeth Conference, held forty years ago.

The subjects submitted will first be discussed by the entire conference, and subsequently referred to committees of bishops, who will report again to the full assembly. Resolutions adopted by the conference will be communicated to the churches in the form of an encyclical letter. All the meetings will be private.

Persian Governor Apologizes.

Teheran, July 7.—The Persian governor accompanied by his suite, all in full uniform, appeared at the British legation today and apologized for the espionage maintained over the legation by a force of Cossacks. The governor promised that any further interference of soldiers would be severely punished. The Cossacks were watching the rear of the legation building in the hope of apprehending revolutionary leaders who had sought refuge in the legation.

London, July 7.—Tabriz is again in an uproar, according to advices from the Persian frontier today. Rachin Khan's victorious Cossack army is being hard pressed by the re-organized rebels and the shah has dispatched several thousands of troops from Celebianlo to his rescue. All communication with Tabriz is again interrupted, but courier dispatches to the frontier say that bloody fighting is again taking place. Dispatches to English news agencies, which for several days have been discrediting the exclusive cablegrams of the United Press, today show a marked change in tone and place the total number of casualities in the the fighting at Tabriz at upwards of 12,000 killed.

Offered Treasurership.

Hot Springs, Va., July 7.—Representative McKinley of Illinois, who was a Cannon boomer at the Chicago convention, has been offered the treasurership of the republican national committee by Candidate Taft.

While in conference with Senator Beveridge last night Taft had Gov. Hanley of Indiana, the Fairbanks nominator, on the long distance telephone and later had a long talk with President Roosevelt.

Senator Hemenway and Representative Watson Representative Burke of Pennsylvania, Powell Clayton of Arkansas, and "Trust Buster" Kellogg, of Minnesota, are here today advising Taft as to his speech of acceptance.

Scores of telegrams from republican leaders are being received by Taft urging the selection of Hitchcock as national chairman.

Peace has been restored in Paraguay, and Dr. Naveiro, the new president, has assumed control of the affairs of state.

The thirty-second annual convention of the Glass Bottle Blowers' Association of the United States and Canada opened at the Maryland Theater, in Baltimore, yesterday.

Cardinal Gibbons stated yesterday that he had appointeded Rev. Owen B. Corrigan vicar-general of the Archdiocese of Baltimore to succeed Bishop Alfred A Curtis, who is seriously ill at St. Agnes Hospital.

Acting District Attorney Elder, of New York, is preparing to lay before the grand jury on Wednesday a complaint that the race track management is receiving twelve dollars a day from each bookmaker at the track for betting privileges.

Virginia News.

Rev. H. Tucker Graham, pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Farmville, has been offered the presidency of Hampden-Sidney College by the board of trustees.

Mrs. Annie E. Garrett, 70 years old, widow of John W. Garrett, died on Friday at her home, near Philomont, Loudoun county. She was a Miss Brown.

Miss Mary S. Herndon, sister-in-law of the late Commodore Mathew Fontaine Maury, died yesterday in the Episcopal Home for Old Women in Richmond. She was 98 years old.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Ethel Hardy, daughter of Mr. J. Harry Hardy; of Norfolk to John Murray Priest, of that city, formerly of Middleburg, Loudoun county.

Cards have been issued announcing the recent marriage of Miss Elizabeth Townsley Ulrich, daughter of Mrs. John Ulrich, of Philadelphia, to T. Harold Brown, son of Yardley T. Brown, formerly of Hamilton, Loudoun county.

Mrs. Frances Hope Lynn, wife of former Senator B. W. Lynn, of Woodburn, Loudoun county, died at her home on Saturday night, aged sixty-five years. Death was due to apoplexy. She is survived by her husband, two daughters, and four sons.

In a fight in King George county Saturday in which a number of negroes were involved, Mac Washington was first knocked down and then shot and killed. Seer and William Searangs, colored men and brothers, were arrested and lodged in jail, accused of complicity in the crime.

Virginia furnishes 14 of the 115 young lawyers yesterday admitted to practice at the District of Columbia. They are: Russell Page Bellew, Clinton R. Colvin, James P. Dilla.d, William D. Goodwin, Algernon Lee Handy, Robert M. Jones, John Samuel Kemp, Richard W. McMahon, Leon Pretzfelder; Vincent Simonton, Robert H. Turner, Gustave R. Thompson, Henry B. Weave.

W. E. Case, of Bealeton, Fauquier county, died suddenly about 6:30 o'clock yesterday morning on passenger train No. 16, between Charlottesville and Washington. Mr. Case got aboard the train at Bealeton, and expired by the time the train reached Calverton. Heart trouble is supposed to have been the cause of his sudden death. Mr. Case was a native of Ohio. He was sixty-six years of age. Besides his wife, he leaves one son. For many years he was engaged in the lumber building supply business at Bealeton.

The State of Virginia is now and will be until the Virginia statesmen return from Denver, without an executive head and should the train bearing the Virginia delegation to the convention be wrecked and everybody killed the commonwealth would be without a head. Not only is Governor Swanson out of the State but also Lieutenant-Governor Ellyson and president pro-tempore of the Senate Echols. The law provides that if the governor and lieutenant-governor die the president pro tem of the senate succeed to the governorship. If he dies, however, the governor's chair is vacant and no provision is made for further governing.

ATTEMPT TO DYNAMITE WIFE.

Because he objected to his wife working in a hotel, Henry Frayer, of Bloomville, N. Y., tied five pounds of dynamite on the end of a 20-foot pole early yesterday morning and, leaning it against her window in the Bloomville House, lighted the fuse and ran to his near-by home. The barn man at the hotel heard the fuse burning, and threw the pole away from the house a moment before it exploded. The explosion was sufficient to break half the windows in the village and to throw those sleeping in the hotel from their beds. Had the pole not been taken away, the hotel would have been wrecked, and it is probable that a majority of twenty people in the hotel would have lost their lives. The barn man who grabbed the pole was thrown 20 feet. Many in the village thought there had been an earthquake.

THE NEXT CENSUS.

It will require an army of 70,000 people to take the thirteenth census in 1910. The task of making the enumeration of the 90,000,000 people in the United States, Alaska, Hawaii and Porto Rico and in Guam, Samoa and the Panama Canal Zone will be one of enormous proportions. It will be the most gigantic work of enumeration that has ever been attempted in this or any other country, and it is intended to reach the acme of correctness and thoroughness. Not merely a count and compilation concerning the population alone, it will include a census of agriculture, manufactures, mines and quarries. It will cost about $14,000,000 to take the census.

OUTDID SHEATH GOWN.

A young woman with an exaggerated idea of the proper kind of bathing suit for Atlantic City appeared on the beach yesterday in flesh-colored tights with a light-weight and abbreviated skirt. She drew a large crowd, became frightened and appealed to a policeman for protection. He was a strategist. He got a bather he knew to go into the ocean, throw up his hands and call for help.

This drew the attention of the crowd in another direction, and then the policeman borrowed the beach surgeon's raincoat, threw it around the young woman and sent her home in a cab.

FIRES IN WASHINGTON.

Three fires raging in different parts of Washington city, between the hours of 9 and 11:30 o'clock last night, damaged property to the extent of about $75 000. Every fire engine in the city was called out and put into action, and had a fourth fire occurred between the hours named there would have been no apparatus to fight it. The Capital Traction car line was three times tied up between the hours of 9 and 12 o'clock. The fires were: Virginia stables, at Sixth and O streets northwest, in which a score of horses were lost, and damages to the amount of $30,000 sustained; Haines' Department Store, at Eighth street and Pennsylvania avenue southeast, damaged to the extent of $25,000, and Commission House Row, including the stores of Gray & Baldwin, and the Javins Storage Company, threatening $1,000,000 worth of property.

The fire department had all it could cope with. Two alarms, that of the Virginia stables and the fire in Commission Row, were general, calling out every engine in the city.

This is the first time in many years that such a series of fires has occurred in Washington.

The fire in the Virginia stables, owned by J. L. Jones and E. L. Baker, was discovered in a hay loft on the second floor. No employes were in the place at the time, nor were there any electric lights or fixtures, and the origin is a mystery. In the first half hour the stable employes and firemen succeeded in bringing out 41 horses, 50 vehicles and hundreds of dollars worth of harness. From 9.20 p. m, the the time of the discovery, until 10 o'clock it was believed that all the animals had been saved, but Chief William T. Belt discovered the bodies of 20 horses in an upstairs compartment.

By good fortune the engines had practically conquered the blaze in the Virginia stables when at 11 o'clock the alarm from Commission Row sounded.

This row, on Louisana avenue, between Ninth and Tenth streets, has been the scene of three destructive fires, where the losses have mounted into hundred of thousands.

That the damage will reach the $50,000 mark there is no doubt

The fire in the Haines department store was discovered in the basement of the building at 9.10 o'clock. In this case, too, the origin is a mystery. The basement of the store contained $20,000 worth of stock, all of which was destroyed. The building is owned by Mrs. Elizabeth Haines.

THE DENVER CONVENTION.

In record time yesterday the democratic national committee disposed of all contests before it, with the exception of those of Pennsylvania and Idaho, which went over until this morning. The general result was to sustain the delegates who came with credentials from their State and districts conventions. A total of 75 seats were involved in the contests from Illinois, New York, Pennsylvania, Idaho, Ohio and the District of Columbia. The work was done by six subcommittees, four of which reported yesterday to the full body.

Interest turned last night to the opening session of the convention, which began today. The appointment of the committee on credentials, rules and permanent organization will be followed by the presentation of resolutions of respect for the memory of Grover Cleveland. Judge Parker has prepared a new draft of these resolutions completely eliminating politics and dealing only with the eminent public services of Mr. Cleveland. If, however, there is the slightest disposition on the part of any of Mr. Bryan's friends to object to the Parker draft, owing to the feeling created by its early provisions, it will not be presented. Today's proceedings will be brief and after the preliminary organization is effected an adjournment will be taken late tomorrow as a mark of respect to Mr. Cleveland.

A canvass of State delegations shows that Bryan's vote on first ballot will be quite as large as indicated in previous polls. A large majority of Pennsylvanians will vote for Bryan. Ohio and Massachusetts will be solid for Bryan, a clear gain of 22 over previous estimates.

Senator Daniel, of Virginia, is a member of the committee on resolutions.

The programme for today is as follows: Convention called to order at 12 noon (2 p. m., eastern time).

Keynote speech, by Temporary Chairman Theodore A. Bell, of California.

Appointment of committees on rules, credentials, resolutions, permanent organization, &c.

Resolutions on death of ex-President Cleveland, to be offered by Alton B. Parker, of New York.

MR. FINLEY'S SPEECH.

President W. W. Finley, of the Southern Railway, was the guest of honor and principal speaker at the annual Board of Trade banquet at Asheville, N. C., last night.

Mr. Finley spoke principally on forest conservation, and said, in part:

"The forest which remains is now becoming scarce because of the growing scarcity of timber elsewhere, a resource of great and increasing value. The hardwood forest of the Ohio Valley, the Lake States, and the lower Mississippi Valley States grew upon soil adapted to agriculture. As rapidly as they have been cleared away, therefore, the land has been turned permanently into agricultural uses. That it pays so to manage lands suited for growing timber as to insure the constant reproduction of a supply of mature trees to be marketed in every after year is not a simple theory; it is a demonstrated fact. We have the proof in the European countries, where this system of forest management has been carried on for many generations. We have its proof in our own land, if we will study the meaning of the increasing demand for timber and its inevitable effect on the value of all that is now standing and that may be produced in the future."

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Would Have Saved Him $100,00.

"In 1902 I had a very severe attack of diarrhoea," says R. N. Farrar of Cat Island, La. "For several weeks I was unable to do anything. On March, 18, 1907, I had a similar attack, and took Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which gave me prompt relief. I consider it one of the best medicines of its kind in the world, and had I used it in 1902 believe it would have saved me a hundred dollar doctor's bill." Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

Today's Telegraphic News.

The Denver Convention.

Denver, July 7.—With the certainly at least of an interesting session before it should complete its labors, the democratic national committee reassembled today prior to the meeting of the national convention to pass upon the contests remaining—those from Idaho and Pennsylvania.

The Idaho situation was admittedly perplexing to the committee. The subcommittee of the three members appointed to consider the case had gone into the merits of the case. Committeeman Williams, of Oklahoma, declared early today that he was inclined to present a minority report recommending that the vote from the state be split in order that both factions should be placed on an equal basis at the next primaries.

However, considerable pressure was exerted on Williams to get him to withdraw his suggestion to carry out the proposition to recognize the Dubois delegation so far as the temporary roll was concerned and let the committee on credentials then pass on the entire matter.

The Pennsylvania case was different The majority of the members of the full committee were inclined to vote on each delegation that was contested and let the result speak for itself.

When the committee met at 10 o'clock it decided to hold sessions behind closed doors.

In the Idaho cases the sub-committee sustained the contestants of the Dubois delegates at large after the adjournment of the night session of the entire committee.

The New York delegation met again at 10 o'clock to receive the report of its own little sub-committee on platform. Lewis Nexon, friend of Bryan, is chairman. It was stated early today, after the committee had been in session nearly all night, that it would produce a set of resolutions not only acceptable to the Fairview farmer and if adopted would be a vote getter in the east.

Coincident with these meetings Samuel Gompers and his associates of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor were putting the finishing touches on the planks desired by organized labor at the hands of the convention.

The vice presidential situation is still in the "air" and will probably remain there until after the platform in out of the way when some decisive word is expected from Lincoln.

Denver, July 7.—Tom Johnson was defeated in the Ohio delegation today for national committeeman by a vote of 26 to 8, Harvey C. Garber receiving the majority vote.

The delegation refused to accept the telegraphic proxies held by Johnson of the thirteen delegates who are still en route.

By a vote of 11 to 3 the Connecticut delegation today decided to yield to Minnesota when the roll is called for nominations for the presidency in order that Representative Hammond of the latter State my place in nomination Gov. Johnson.

Tammany Hall has cut Bryan ed Bryan. The braves have decided to present to the committee on resolutions of the democratic national committee the most radical platform ever suggested from the east. The sub-committee of New York State delegation named to confer as to the planks the Empire state desires had practically all of the suggestions made by the American Federation of Labor affecting labor and especially those bearing on the anti-injunction question, inserted. The delegation adopted the report.

Bryan's friends are furious. They openly assert that Tammany is trying to embarrass him. He did not desire to go so far as to absolutely prohibit the use of injunction in the labor disputes. All he wanted was to regulate, not prohibit.

But Tammany declares it has only taken Bryan at his word. He was reported to have declared labor's demands justified it, and that he wanted no ambiguous language used. One of the Tammany men let the cat out of the bag in discussing the question today:

"We will have a city election in New York one year from this fall," he said, "we need the labor vote. We can control the so-called silk stocking democracy, but the organized labor element has informed us it was tired of empty promises, and if we yield to their demands and force the national convention to yield, we will be in the strongest position we ever were in New York. It will help us materially this fall and establish a precedent. If Bryan and his friends oppose us, we will put the responsibility directly up to him and if he forces a conservative platform, God help his chances, as both the west and east will resent it. He always was a radical, our democracy is now radical, and we can fight best that way and not as conservatives."

The Tammany platform will also please the Pacific slope. It insists on the exclusion of Asiatics and favors an increased American navy.

Tammany does not want a declaration on the safeguarding and guaranteeing the national bank deposits as suggested by Oklahoma, and does not mention the matter at all. It also dodges the plan to recommend the ascertaining of the physical valuation of railroads.

In the strongest terms Tammany however, demands a real parcels post, which it declares is necessary for the welfare of the country.

In the hope that a compromise might be effected and a measure of peace restored between Patrick McCarren, of the contesting Brooklyn delegation and the powers in control of the Denver convention, an offer was conveyed to McCarren by a member of the subcommittee of the national committee. "The committee is disposed to give you a half vote for each of your delegates," the emissary reported. "You go back," replied McCarren, "to the dog that sent you and tell them to stick their half votes in the stoke-hole of hell. Brooklyn knows what it will do."

As it appears today the chances are good that there will be a ruction over the naming of the vice presidential candidate. Of the "receptive" candidates, the two most prominently mentioned now are Representative Ollie James, of Kentucky, and Charles A. Towne, of New York.

There are one or two absolute facts connected with the situation. One is that if the delegation from the state of New York will unite upon a candidate that man will be nominated. If the empire state does not desire to avail itself of this, Bryan will indicate his choice and whoever he names will be the nominee.

The New Yorkers appears to be none too eager to name a vice presidential candidate. Although Tammany Leader Murphy is making a great pretense of being a strong Bryan supporter, and, because of the power of his organization is doubtless able to throw the big vote of that state to whomsoever he pleases, the rank and file of the delegation is at present divided. When Murphy says the word they will doubtless cast a united vote.

But as yet they are not sure whom they are going to support. There is a strong suspicion, however, that Murphy has an understanding with Bryan on this question. There is an even stronger suspicion that Bryan is in favor of Towne's nomination. Thomas F. Grady, the Tamanny orator and close personal friend of Murphy, is said to have been selected to put Towne in nomination.

Towne declared that he would have at least half of the New York delegation and that he had received assurances from enough other states to make his nomination certain.

Former Senator Pettigrew, one of Bryan's closest friends, said today that he thought it might take a number of ballots to determine who would be the vice presidential nominee.

There is one thing certain and that is no matter whether there is a secret understanding or not between Bryan and any of the leaders with regard to the vice presidency there will be no direct intimation of it until after the platform has been adopted.

Denver, July 7.—The Denver national convention of 1908 is convened and a great and inspiring spectacle it is—even to the eye. It is greater still to the mind. A mass of moving men piled high from floor to the ceiling of an immense auditorium with flags flying and bands playing, is a moving sight to see.

The flood failed to stop Theodore A. Bell, of California, temporary chairman of the convention. After an all-night ride, first on a hand car and later on a special train over the Rock Island Railway he arrived here shortly after 8 o'clock this morning.

Denver, July 7.—The convention was called to order at 12:25 p. m when Bishop Keane delivered a prayer. The call for the convention was then read. Temporary Chairman Bell was escorted to the platform by Gov. Blanchard, of Louisiana; Ollie James, of Kentucky and ex-Lieut. Gov. Ellyson, of Virginia.

Temporary Chairman Bell later began his speech.

Denver, July 7.—At the close of the session today resolutions in respect to the death of ex-President Grover Cleveland were introduced by delegate S. J. Dunn, of Nebraska, who will be Bryan's nominator. They were unanimously adopted and the convention then adjourned until tomorrow as a further mark of respect.

Mr. Bryan to Appear in Person.

Lincoln, Neb., July 7.—William J. Bryan will spring an unscheduled bomb at the democratic national convention by appearing in person before the great assembly shortly after he is nominated for the presidency, for the purpose of shooting an undying inspiration into the assembled clans of democracy. Such is the statement given out by John T. Kent, of the Commoner, chief agent of the leader. He declares Bryan is about to start to Denver to upset all of the published dope as to the "peerless" leader's intentions in respect to the conduct of the convention.

Simulatneously comes Kent's declaration that Bryan is in entire accord with temporary Chairman Bell's attitude on the Oriental exclusion act, which Bell declared he was going to fight for to the notch in his visit here yesterday. Kent was in consultation with Bryan yesterday and expects to start for Denver today to carry important messages.

Prince de Sagan and Mme. Gould Married.

London, July 7.—Mme. Anna Gould and Prince Helie de Sagan were married this morning in the Strand registry office by Registrar Craddock. Following the civil service in the registry office the couple entered a cab and were driven to the French Protestant Church in Soho square where a religious ceremony was performed. There were no attendants at either of the ceremonies, the utmost simplicity being observed, though no attempt was made at secrecy. George Gould and his family were not present at either of the services. The second ceremony was followed by a small wedding breakfast at the Savoy Hotel. The couple will leave for Paris tonight and will probably go to the princess's villa in Marais. The only witnesses to the two ceremonies were Baron Defontenilliat and Monsieur Donchauvin. The civil ceremony was performed at 11:40, immediately following the expiration of the twenty-four hours required between the notification and the marriage.

Prince de Sagan says: "I am the happiest man in London, and I am going to do everything in my power to make my wife just as happy as I am. This will be my only ambition in the future."

Over Thirty-five Years.

In 1872 there was a great deal of diarrhoea, dysentery and cholera infantum. It was at this time that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was first brought into use. It proved more successful than any other remedy or treatment, and has for thirty-five years maintained that record. From a small beginning its sale and use has extended to every part of the United States and to many foreign countries. Nine druggists out of ten will recommend it when their opinion is asked, although they have other medicines that pay them a greater profit. It can always be depended upon, even in the most severe and dangerous cases. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

The Trial of Steve Adams.

Grand Junction, Colo., July 7.—Testimony began here today in the trial of Steve Adams accused of assassinating Arthur Collins, a mine manager during strike troubles at Telluride several years ago. Attorney Hilton for Adam objected to the admission of an alleged confession. The judge reserved his decision.

Failed to Identify Gein.

Philadelphia, July 7.—Foreman Olmstead, of the Keystone Type Foundry, from whom Dr. W. H. Wilson's poisoner bought initial letters to stamp a seal on the bottle of poisoned ale, failed today to identify Frederick Gein as the man he dealt with. This is a blow to the police theory of the crime.

Indictments Expected.

New York, July 7.—Indictments against officials of the Coney Island Jockey Club and a score of bookmakers are expected to result from a searching probe into alleged violations of the anti-betting law begun today by the Kings county grand jury.

Nelson's Offer.

San Francisco, July 7.—Battling Nelson agreed today to fight Gans at Ely, Nev., on Labor Day for a purse of $30,000 offered by Tex Richard. Nelson, now that he is champion, demands $25,000, of this. Gans, is holding out for $10,000

Continues to Improve.

Cooperstown, N. Y., July 7.—Bishop Potter is much better today after a very comfortable night. He now takes nourishment regularly and Dr. Janvrin states that he expects the churchman's condition to show continued improvement.

Message from the President.

Oyster Bay, July 7.—President Roosevelt today sent the following message to Rear Admiral Chas. S. Sperry, commander of the American fleet:

"I send to you and officers and enlisted men under you my heartiest good wishes on the eve of your departure. That the American people can trust to skilled efficiency and devotion to duty of its representatives on the fleet has been abundantly shown by the trip around South America and I know will be made equally manifest on the return trip across the Pacific, Indian and Atlantic oceans. You have in a peculiar sense the honor of the United States in your keeping and therefore no body of men in the world enjoy at this moment a greater privilege or carry a heavier responsibility."

Deaths from Heat.

New York, July 7.—Fifteen dead and more than a hundred hospital cases of heat prostration is New York's tale of torture for the 24 hours to noon today. Intense humidity, an absolutely breezeless night and the temperature at 81 this morning caused such suffering as even this city has rarely seen.

Philadelphia, July 7.—Four are dead and more than fifty prostrated here by the hot wave of the last 24 hours. Eighty-five degrees of heat and 83 of humidity is causing great suffering.

New York Stock Market.

New York, July 7.—The market was strong all through the first hour and everything traded in was at about the highest range reached in several weeks. The Hill stocks moved up a little during the hour and fractional advances were made in nearly all the industrials. In the last half of the forenoon the volume of business decreased materially and the strong tone disappeared for a time. A midday reaction was in progress with the prices of the leading stocks slightly below the highest range.

Lautenschlager Wins.

Dieppe, France, July 7.—Lautenschlager, in a Mercedes car, won the Grand Prix automobile race today. Lautenschlager's time for the 478¼ miles was 6 hours and 55 minutes.

Paris, July 7.—A message has just been received from the Dieppe race course that Cissac, driving a French Panhard car, and his mechanician were killed by the overturning of their car on the leg between Lodiniers and Eu.

Cloudburst.

Lincoln, Neb., July 7.—Mr. W. J. Bryan's home is still cut off from Lincoln by the raging floods caused by the cloudburst Sunday night. While seven persons are known to have been drowned it is believed the bodies of several others will be revealed when the waters recede. Nearly 2,000 are homeless and the property loss is estimated at half a million dollars.

THE RICHMOND TIMES DISPATCH.

Wonderful strides have been made by the Times Dispatch, of Richmond. The Sunday edition of this paper, especially, is a credit to Virginia and the neighboring states, for not only is the local field covered but the special features and the news of the world generally equal that printed by any paper in the country. This paper receives the full telegraph services of several of the press associations, over leased wires, which gives it the news up to the latest moment before going to press.

Every branch of newspaper work is covered in its Sunday edition. The Confederate page, giving inside history of the Confederate army and navy, is of unusual interest to all southern people. The genealogical columns point out "who's who" in the south. An entire section is set apart for those features especially of interest to women, such as society, fashions, fiction, foreign gossip and news of women's clubs. A novel feature is a section made by children. The field of sports is fully covered in four pages, well illustrated. There is scarcely a southern newspaper which has not congratulated the Times-Dispatch on the great work that has been done for the south by this industrial section.

Taken all in all, the Times-Dispatch equals the best papers of the United States. There is none better. It is supreme in Virginia.

UNSAFE BRIDGES.

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette:

We desire to call the immediate attention of the county authorities to the dangerously insecure condition of the bridges on the roads near the Episcopal Seminary. Two horses have been already badly hurt on account of the criminal negligence of the overseers. It is true that the places where the horses were hurt have been attended to but the bridges require thorough examination, and are only temporarily repaired. So many persons both from the town and country travel over these roads, that unless these bridges are kept in proper order, they become a menace to life and limb, and here as elsewhere the old adage "a stitch in time saves nine," is especially applicable.

IS YOUR COAT DUSTY?

You Probably Have the White Scab of Dandruff on It.

If your coat or shoulders have a white dust upon it, the chances are that it is from dandruff. The only way to permanently cure dandruff is to remove the cause, which is a germ. Newbro's Herpicide kills the germ. Every toilet table should have such a hair-dressing that contains also the destroyer of the dandruff and hair falling germ. It stops all irritation, keeps the scalp sweet, pure and wholesome. Remember that something claimed to be "just as good," will not do the work of genuine Herpicide.

Sold by Ernest L. Allen & Co., agents. Two sizes 50c and $1.00. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. 62

INJUNCTION.

At a late hour yesterday afternoon Judge L. C. Barley of the Corporation Court issued an order turning Armory Hall over to the new Alexandria Light Infantry and enjoining Captain P. J. Murphy, Lieutenant W. W. Demaine or others from interfering in any manner with Captain F. L. Slaymaker, Lieutenant R. H. C. Beverley and the other members of the new organization in the possession of the building. The writ was served on Captain Murphy about 5 o'clock. The application for the injunction was made by Captain Slaymaker, and he gave a bond of $500. The writ is made returnable on the 20th instant. City Sergeant Cox was directed to secure the keys of the armory and turn them over to Captain Slaymaker. Captain Murphy surrendered the keys to the sergeant and he in turn gave them to Captain Slaymaker.

It was later announced that the organization would assemble at the corner of King and Lee streets at 8 o'clock and march to the armory to take possession. Capt. Murphy had directed his men to respect the order of the court and allow the matter to be adjudicated in a legal manner and when the members of the new company, in citizens' clothes, marched to the armory there was no demonstration, as some had expected, although a crowd had assembled in front of the armory.

"An injunction was served upon me this afternoon about 5 o'clock, to turn over to Frank L. Slaymaker and others our armory. It was too late for our attorney to take action, as the judge has left town. This, to me, is a peculiar order. Still, I have all due respect for the law, and earnestly request you gentlemen to respect the order until it can be settled as to the fairness of the decision."

The new company entered the building, gave three cheers, and then marched back to their starting point and dispersed.

Judge Barley signed the writ of injunction a few minutes before leaving his office to take a train for Bath county.

The new company will assemble again Thursday night, when guns will be distributed and drills begun. Thereafter meetings will be held every Monday and Thursday nights. The company probably will go into encampment at Chicamauga from July 23 until August 1.

Very Patient.

A doctor, now eminent, was at one time serving as interne in one of the Philadelphia hospitals as well as holding his own with a coterie of rather gay friends. On a certain morning the physician awoke to find that he had sadly overslept. Sleepily donning his attire, he hastened to the hospital and soon a stalwart young Irishman claimed his attention.

"Well, my man, what seems to be your trouble this morning?" inquired the doctor, concealing a yawn and taking the patient by the hand to examine his pulse.

"Faith, sor, it's all in me breathin', doctor. I can't git me breath at all, at all."

"The pulse is normal, Pat, but let me examine the lung action a moment," replied the doctor, kneeling beside the cot and laying his head on the Irishman's chest. "Now let me hear you talk," he continued, closing his eyes and listening attentively for sounds of pulmonary congestion.

A moment of silence.

"What will I be sayin', doctor?" finally asked the patient.

"Oh, say anything. Count. Count one, two, three and up, that way," murmured the physician drowsily.

"Wan, two, three, fure, five, six."

When the young doctor, with a start, opened his eyes, Pat was continuing weakly, "Tin hundred an' sixty-nine, tin hundred an' sivinty, tin hundred an' sivinty-wan."—Success.

Taken Unawares.

It is likely that the most embarrassed man in New York could be found last Monday in a Sixth avenue store. He was a mild, inoffensive looking man. He stood leaning over the balcony that surrounds the first floor of the store, looking with interest at the crowd below. Presently his eye alighted on a small boy who was being rushed from counter to counter in tow of a very large woman. Just as he looked down at the boy the boy looked up at him. Instinctively perceiving, with diabolic instinct, what would be his own youthful propensity if he occupied a similar point of vantage, the boy struck a beseeching attitude and called out in imploring accents:

"Oh, mister; please, mister, don't spit on me!"

For a man with no intention of spitting on that particular boy or any one else the situation was certainly awkwark, and the man retired in red faced confusion.—New York Times.

Queer, but True.

"For this here splurge," said the caterer, "do the guests know one another well or are they jest passin' acquaintances?"

"Oh, they are intimate friends, lifelong friends."

"Then," said the caterer, "I'll add 20 per cent to that estimate if you don't mind."

"But I do mind. Why"—

"Twenty per cent more for lifelong friends," the caterer insisted. "I'd be out of pocket otherwise. A bunch of friends at a splurge always eat a fifth more than a bunch of passin' acquaintances or strangers. Didn't you never notice that?" he concluded as he rectified the bill. "You might have noticed it from your own experience. Among strangers you're ill at ease, nervous; that takes your appetite away. But with friends you're quite at home, and you eat like a horse."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Moving Pictures.

Moving picture cameras are remarkable pieces of mechanism. The films are only three-quarters of an inch wide. These are in rolls, sometimes 800 feet long. When taking pictures the camera man reels off these rolls just as rapidly as they are unreeled when thrown upon the canvas for the spectator, at a rate of ten or twelve films a second. Moving pictures are simply a number of views thrown upon a white sheet one after another so rapidly that the eye cannot detect the intervals.

An Author Who Hated Water.

Mme. d'Arblay, better known as Miss Fanny Burney, who took such an important place in the literature of the eighteenth century, had an extraordinary and most undesirable peculiarity. She had the greatest aversion to washing and water. Sir Henry Holland was the physician who attended the gifted authoress during the last year of her life, and she confided to him that she had not washed for fifteen years.

Origin of Yankee Pronunciation.

It was these historic Suffolk families who in the seventeenth century took over with them to America the peculiar Suffolk pronunciation out of which has developed the modern seminasal Yankee twang.—London Spectator.

Teacher—Now, Johnny, if the earth were empty on the inside, what could we compare it to? Johnny—A razor, ma'am. Teacher—A razor? Johnny—Yes, ma'am; because it would be hollow ground.

Help for Those Who Have Stomach Trouble.

After doctoring for about twelve years for a bad stomach trouble, and spending nearly five hundred dollars for medicine and doctors' fees, I purchased my wife one box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which did her so much good that she continued to use them and they have done her more good than all of the medicine I bought before.—SAMUEL BOYER, Folsom, Iowa. Hot Stove—Cool Kitchen

How do you expect to endure the broiling days of summer if you prepare all the food over a glowing coal fire?

You need a "New Perfection" Oil Stove that will do the cooking without cooking the cook. It concentrates plenty of heat under the pot and diffuses little or none through the room. Therefore, when working with the

NEW PERFECTION
Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove

the kitchen actually seems as comfortable as you could wish it to be.

This, in itself, is wonderful, but, more than that, the "New Perfection" Oil Stove does perfectly everything that any stove can do. It is an ideal all-round cook-stove. Made in three sizes, and fully warranted. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

ACCIDENT AT ELECTRIC PLANT.

An accident occured in the general electric plant at the Norfolk navy yard yesterday morning at 1:30 o'clock which plunged the great plant into darkness. One of the two 150-horsepower engines that drive the electric generators was at work grinding out current for the lighting of the yard, two men being in attendance. They were Electrical Engineer E. J. Harlow and Machinist C. A. Cuthriell.

Engineer Harlow suddenly discovered that the connecting rod was loose. Before he could act it had broken and become jammed in the flying machinery. The heads of both the high and low pressure cylinders flew off, and the air was filled with fragments of iron casting and steam.

Seeing the steam envelop Cuthriell, and fearing he would be killed, Harlow started for the fireroom to shut off the steam from the boilers, but he became imprisoned between the engines by clouds of scalding steam. He thought Cuthriell was roasted by that time, and Cuthriell thought the engineer might be dead. He, however, made his way to the fireroom, and the steam was shut off in time to prevent cooking the imprisoned engineer.

The men were bruised and bleeding, and when they took account of their hurts it was found that the flying bits of the cylinder heads had struck them both, cutting Mr. Cuthriell about the arms and legs and lacerating his hands, while Mr. Harlow, besides his parboiled skin, was struck in the back by a heavy casting. The generators and engine were wrecked.
